

The safest way to store a firearm is locked up using a locking device unloaded

separate from ammunition with the keys and combinations to locking devices inaccessible to children and others at risk

If you are a parent or caregiver assume that children know where firearms and ammunition are kept ask if there's a firearm in any home where your children play or spend time